

Personal Statement Outline

Your Personal Statement gives you an opportunity to introduce yourself and discuss selected skills, interests, work values, achievements and experiences that you have had. College and scholarship applications require similar statements. A student may choose to use their Personal Statement to satisfy this requirement. This is an opportunity for you to reflect on your high experiences and plan for the future.

Relevant personal background information: _____

Skills: _____

Achievements/experiences: _____

Interests: _____

What you value and why: _____

What you have learned that will prepare you for your future: _____

Post High School Plans and how it connects to your interests/skills: _____

