

Prime Rhyme 2

Prime rhymes are word pairs with identical sounds except for the initial consonants. These popular pairs, like "bright light" make sense together.

Read the definition on the left and complete these well-known prime rhymes with the word that rhymes.

- | | |
|---|-------------|
| 1. Light coloured beer | pale_____ |
| 2. Suspicious activity | _____cavey |
| 3. Important person | fat_____ |
| 4. Highly successful, self-assured person | _____shot |
| 5. Accost and intercept unexpectedly | way_____ |
| 6. Celebrity pastime | fame_____ |
| 7. Sufficient number of things | enough_____ |
| 8. Place are stolen cars are taken apart | _____shop |
| 9. Host of a shock radio program | shock_____ |
| 10. Nonsense word phrase used by magicians | _____pocus |
| 11. Incomprehensible language | mumbo_____ |
| 12. Devious or mischievous activity | _____panky |
| 13. Potent cocktail with rum | mai_____ |
| 14. Dying fabric in such a way that it is streaked | _____dye |
| 15. Addiction to cosmetic surgery | vanity_____ |
| 16. Television | _____tube |
| 17. Slogan for passive resistance in the late 1960's and early 1970's | flower_____ |
| 18. Superior alcoholic beverage made from fermented grapes | _____wine |
| 19. Bound pages of recipes | cook_____ |
| 20. Train car that primarily serves beverages | _____car |

Created by Flickhappy