

2. In what way does the information shown in the graph relate to the procedure in Activity 13-1?

A. The sea floor spreading.

3. On your paper draw a line that would represent the amount of total movement that would occur between a point east of the Mid Atlantic Ridge and a point west of the ridge in one year

4. If the distance from a point on the coast of Africa to the Mid-Atlantic Ridge is approximately 2400 km, how long ago was that point in Africa at or near that Mid-ocean ridge?

It was approximately 200,000,000 million years ago.