

The Crag – Drawing Conclusions: Chapter 8 questions.

Drawing conclusions about main characters: We learn about the two main characters from the things they say and do. After each quote, copy the best answer from the list at the bottom.

1. "Careful not to spill a drop," he said. "The boat to live only an outrageous small amount. Just enough to wet a finger...The log 'over a way offside' its proper size."
2. Without answering, he opened the trap in the raft and secured the log again.
3. I couldn't hold the team back.
4. I blurted out, "I wouldn't even be here with you if it wasn't for my mistake."
5. He was a shabby-sloped man in the raft.
6. I yelled over at him, "You're saving all the water for yourself!"
7. "...I do not remember a delta or my mistake. I was rained by a woman call Hannah Quinby..."
8. "What will make you better, go 'head."
