

Under the Sea

If I could live anywhere it would be under the sea. I would live in a glass house so I could watch the fish. I would grow accored to oct. I would ride seahorses to school. The fish would be my best friends. You could come to see me. You would get wet!

Answer the following questions.

1. Where would I like to live?

2. What would my house be made of?

3. What food would I eat?

4. How would I get to school?

5. Who would be my friends?

6. Is this story real or make-believe?

