

Name _____ Section _____

Directions: Read each item carefully. Mark your answer on the bubble next to the correct choice. Some choices will not be used.

Directions: Read each item carefully. Mark your answer on the bubble next to the correct choice. Some choices will not be used.

prepare	attend	argue	take	use	allow wait	arrive	provide	offer	draw	over
call	hear	take away	drawn	beat

1. A person who goes to a public event is a(n) _____ . Mark your answer on the bubble next to the correct choice.
2. The _____ of the organization allowed organizational members to share their perspectives of frequent trading.
3. A person who has a _____ is a(n) _____ .
4. A person who _____ is a(n) _____ .
5. A person who is _____ is a(n) _____ .
6. A person who is _____ is a(n) _____ .
7. A person who is _____ is a(n) _____ .
8. A person who is _____ is a(n) _____ .
9. A person who is _____ is a(n) _____ .
10. A person who is _____ is a(n) _____ .
11. A person who is _____ is a(n) _____ .
12. A person who is _____ is a(n) _____ .
13. A person who is _____ is a(n) _____ .
14. A person who is _____ is a(n) _____ .
15. A person who is _____ is a(n) _____ .

Directions: Read each item carefully.

John Jay, first chief justice of the United States, was a brilliant and able lawyer. He was also a statesman and a patriot. He was one of the founders of the nation and a signer of the Declaration of Independence. He was also a diplomat and a negotiator. He was one of the most important figures in the early history of the United States.

16. John Jay was a(n) _____ .

17. John Jay was a(n) _____ .

18. John Jay was a(n) _____ .

19. John Jay was a(n) _____ .

20. John Jay was a(n) _____ .

John Jay