1. _____ In the _____ model, abnormality is seen as an illness that is caused physically and that can be treated physically.
   a. social-learning
   b. neurobiological
   c. phenomenological
   d. psychodynamic

2. _____ Janine has been told that since her mother is depressed, there is an increased risk that Janine herself will later become depressed. Janine may have a(n) _____ toward depression.
   a. integration
   b. allotype
   c. diathesis
   d. prototype

3. _____ Which of the following is included on Axis II of the DSM IV -TR?
   a. Schizophrenia
   b. Personality disorders
   c. Mood disorders
   d. Sexual disorders

4. _____ Two psychologists interview the same patient and give her two different diagnoses. This illustrates the problem of
   a. low interrater reliability
   b. high diagnostic specificity
   c. statistical conformity
   d. diagnostic validity

5. _____ Anxiety disorders are characterized by all of the following symptoms except
   a. panic attacks
   b. free-floating anxiety
   c. worry
   d. hallucinations

6. _____ A man breaks out in a cold sweat when he sees the color orange and takes great pains to avoid the color orange. This condition is known as
   a. panic disorder
   b. social phobia
   c. specific phobia
   d. generalized anxiety disorder

7. _____ Sharon is continually tense, jittery, and apprehensive for no specific reason. She would probably be diagnosed as suffering from a(n)
   a. phobia
   b. major depressive episode
   c. obsessive-compulsive disorder
   d. generalized anxiety disorder

8. _____China is afraid of going to the grocery store, the mall, and most other public places. She is afraid that something bad will happen and she will not be able to escape. The diagnosis that best fits is
   a. social phobia
   b. panic disorder
   c. generalized anxiety disorder
   d. agoraphobia

9. _____ Jennifer has developed a tendency toward bipolar disorder from her mother, but has not yet developed the disease. According to the diathesis-stress model, one reason why Jennifer has not developed bipolar disorder may be that
   a. her self-actualization has not been blocked.
   b. she has not yet had any unresolved unconscious conflicts
   c. no life events have yet provoked the disorder
   d. there is no genetic tendency in the first place