

Crab Walk

Crabs are excellent scavengers. They pick up animal and plant leftovers as they travel through the ocean. Most crabs move sideways across the rocks, coral, and sandy bottom of the sea floor. Use your ruler to measure in centimeters the distance each crab crawls as it "cleans up" on his trip through his ocean home.

1.			_____
2.			_____
3.			_____
4.			_____
5.			_____
6.			_____