

Is it a living thing?

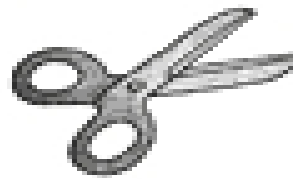

Observations

Living things can move, eat, and grow. Living things can make more living things. They have babies. Things that are not alive cannot do any of these things.

Science activity

Draw a circle around each living thing that is alive.

Science exploration

Name some living things in your house.

