

You can also create several matching activities for young children by making several copies of the snowmen and coloring them different colors. Ask the children to match the snowmen that have blue hats or red mittens, etc.

