

4. Millwright Night's dream – Discussion	GROUP 1
1) What does the title of the poem suggest to you about the subject matter of the poem? 2) How does the poet use the title to set the scene for the poem? 3) Can you explain the title of the poem? 4) Answer any questions.

4. Millwright Night's dream – Discussion	GROUP 2
1) Can you explain the title of the poem? 2) In the beginning of the poem there is an argument among some people. What does the poet say about the people in the poem? Is it better or worse than the poem that you have just read? Why or why not? 3) How does the poet use the title to set the scene for the poem? 4) Answer any questions.

4. Millwright Night's dream – Discussion	GROUP 3
1) How is the poet using the title of the poem? What is the poet saying about the poem? Is it better or worse than the poem that you have just read? Why or why not? 2) How does the poet use the title to set the scene for the poem? 3) How does the poet use the title to set the scene for the poem? 4) Answer any questions.

4. Millwright Night's dream – Discussion	GROUP 4
1) What does the title of the poem suggest to you about the subject matter of the poem? 2) How does the poet use the title to set the scene for the poem? 3) Why do you think the poet uses the title of the poem? Is there a competition between the poet and the poet? 4) Answer any questions.

4. Millwright Night's dream – Discussion	GROUP 5
1) How does the poet use the title of the poem? Is it better or worse than the poem that you have just read? Why or why not? 2) How does the poet use the title to set the scene for the poem? 3) How does the poet use the title to set the scene for the poem? 4) Answer any questions.	