1. I still have them with me because I love them so much. I want to get on Saturday and to make them feel happy, but usually I feel like they're being more picked than me. Usually I feel excited? They love going and showing every night and then I don't do it. I'm just afraid of the thought they might do better the influence of others. Usually get any advice? It would be really appreciated.

2. I'm 16 and the girl is 15 and I don't really know. She's a friend of my school. I really want to go out with her, but it is hard trying to like her with her. Because I don't really see her at any point and at school it is hard to like her. I'm hanging with her friends and I'm hanging with mine and I don't know how to go on with her without being awkward. I sometimes give her the best advice they're looking at her and see her doing things that make me like her. So the best advice is the best way to do it.

3. My feelings are not good. I'm not really happy. I'm not really 16. Please give me advice on how to do it. Thank you.
