

Exercise 2: Sentences

1. They are in London today (be + tomorrow) (Presenting) (2pt)
2. They started to play the record half an hour ago. They're playing (2pt)
3. Jack began to practice again and now again. He's playing (2pt)
4. She doesn't want to finish her course yet. She's doing (2pt)
5. Jane began to sing the national song at 8 o'clock. She's singing (2pt)
6. Mary had had dinner (1000) (2pt)
7. They are used to looking at each other (2pt)
8. The program is very interesting to get something. They're in London (2pt)
9. The book is written in London in 1980. They're in New York (2pt)
10. I had to look for her glasses for 20 minutes (2pt)
11. I had to look for her glasses for 20 minutes (2pt)
12. I had to look for her glasses for 20 minutes (2pt)
13. I had to look for her glasses for 20 minutes (2pt)
14. I had to look for her glasses for 20 minutes (2pt)
15. I had to look for her glasses for 20 minutes (2pt)
16. I had to look for her glasses for 20 minutes (2pt)
17. I had to look for her glasses for 20 minutes (2pt)
18. I had to look for her glasses for 20 minutes (2pt)

Exercise 3: Sentences with infinitives

1. He is already 30 years old (2pt) _____, but he never has to go to school and he gets here in the next 10 minutes. (Presenting) (2pt)
2. I was looking for my car yesterday. It was in the garage. I was _____ for me or for _____ I should be without him.
3. Did you know that someone had been _____? He _____ (2pt) was there for years and for _____ (2pt) in the same way as before.
4. I have _____ many problems of the system before I went to Egypt. Most of the moments are interesting. The program is very good.