

Name _____

Date _____

ROOT WORDS PRACTICE

Choose the word or phrase that complete each sentence.

1. If you procrastinate, you _____ doing something. (rush, delay, mismanage)
2. The prologue of the book is like the _____ (foreword, climax, index)
3. A promontory is not a _____ (hill, pinnacle, valley)
4. When things are retroactive, they affect the _____ (past, future, weather)
5. To retrogress is to move _____ (rapidly, forward, backward)
6. His propensity for playing the piano was his _____ (displeasure, talent, hobby)
7. A retrospective art show would deature samples of _____ work. (past, best, current)
8. When you profess something, you _____ (renounce privately, memorize entirely, declare publicly)
9. The rocket's retrofire happened during _____ (orbit, launch, landing)
10. Retrospect is the same as _____ of the past. (review, rejection, restoration)

Match each word with a word or phrase with the same meaning.

monopoly (n) control by one person or one company
unicorn (n) a horse-like animal with one horn unify (n) to make on dual (adj) made up of two people, parts, or things bisect (v) to cut into two pieces.

- | | |
|-------------------|------------------------|
| 1. _____ bisect | form into one |
| 2. _____ monopoly | one horn |
| 3. _____ unify | total control or power |
| 4. _____ dual | cut in half |
| 5. _____ unicorn | two-part |