Singular and Plural Nouns

A singular noun names one person, place, or thing.
A plural noun names more than one person, place or thing.
Add es to singular nouns that end with sh, ch, x, z, and s to make them plural.

⟹ Directions: Rewrite each sentence to change the singular noun to a plural noun.

1. There is a dish on the table.
_____

_____

2. I made a wish on a falling star.
_____

_____

3. The mailman brought a box to the house.
_____

_____

4. We found a toothbrush in the bathroom.
_____

_____

5. I saw a bus at the school.
_____

_____