Quantum Units Education www.QuantumUnitsEd.com

Substance Abuse Treatment: Group Therapy

Multip Identify		Choice choice that best completes the statement or answer.	wers	s the question.
	1.	Chapter 1 This natural propensity in humans makes group abuse.	the	erapy a powerful therapeutic tool for treating substance
		A. to support one another B. to congregate		to join a cause to seek out therapy when needed
	2.	Groups provide positive peer support and press A. True		to abstain from substances of abuse. False
	3.	Group therapy is equivalent to 12-step program A. True		rectices. False
	4.	Ineffective substance abuse group therapy can be already as a lack of group cooperation or an unskilled therapist     B. lack of clinical supervision or applying the wrong modality for this type of group	C.	a poor attitude on the part of the therapist or poor academic training
	5.	For the most part, group therapy has been based problems may or may not include substance ab A. True	use.	a model derived from inpatient therapy for clients whose False
	6.	5. Chapter 2 The primary way to define the types of groups that are used in substance abuse treatment is by a comof:
		A. group goals and methodology     B. gender makeup and group goals		the primary substance of abuse and methodology None of the above
	7.	This TIP manual discusses 5 types of group mother following is NOT one of the 5.  A. psycho-educational groups  B. skills development groups	C.	s that are effective for substance abuse treatment. Which or relapse prevention groups support groups