

Writing Thesis Statements in 3 Steps

| 1. Make the topic specific | 2. Continue with a debatable phrase | 3. Explain the significance to the audience |
|----------------------------|-------------------------------------|---|
| Exactly who? | does... | , proving that... |
| When? | does not... | |
| How many? | should... | , resulting in... |
| Which ones? | should not... | |
| Where? | highlights... | , making us doubt... |
| | ignores... | , reminding us that... |

Example 1: The longer school day in Chicago next year does not guarantee that students will be productive in classes, reminding us that young people need to find learning meaningful.

Example 2: The longer school day in Chicago next year does guarantee more learning opportunities, resulting in increased student success.
