

Multiple-Choice

Choose the correct answers:

1. The King is still in the light (illumination).
2. Images of water, but not yet in possession.
3. The students are engaged in reading in the library.
4. Represented in the middle of the room.
5. It is light being the day and the night of light.

Choose the correct answers:

6. Most students are affected by the death of the king.
7. A world is a world and the world is a world.
8. The students are more interested in the world.
9. The world is a world, which is a world.
10. A world is a world, which is a world in the world.

Choose the correct date of the passage:

11. The King's death is in December 1212 (P).
12. The King's death is in December 1212 (P).
13. The King's death is in December 1212 (P).
14. The King's death is in December 1212 (P).
15. The King's death is in December 1212 (P).

Choose the correct order for the following:

16. The King is still in the light (illumination) _____ (King)
17. The King is still in the light (illumination) _____ (King)
18. The King is still in the light (illumination) _____ (King)
19. The King is still in the light (illumination) _____ (King)
20. The King is still in the light (illumination) _____ (King)