

Section - Grammar Test

1. Complete the sentences using the right part of the verb.

1. Why do you look at me so strange? (I said nothing wrong!)
2. He is looking again for eggs.
3. You are thinking the ship will be approached?
4. I'll go to London because I don't have enough money.
5. You can be beaten? Yes, I can be beaten in 2000.

2. Put the articles where necessary.

1. I have ... ambitions.
2. She has ... long unshorned hair.
3. Would you like to see ... London Palace?
4. She ... played my brother's ... violin as well I had no chance.
5. Going ... to work is a more pleasant holiday for boys than playing ... video.

3. Choose the right answer.

1. ... has lived in this house for many years.
a) Nothing
b) His son
c) His house
2. He didn't care ... money and he had a small house.
a) few
b) many
c) much
3. He is not satisfied ... his work ...
a) at the
b) many
c) few
4. I've got two neighbours, but I like ... of them.
a) none
b) either
c) neither
5. You can have ... of the biscuits. They're delicious.
a) either
b) one
c) neither
6. ... I didn't use to be quite as child.
a) ... still
b) so
c) either
d) neither

4. Put in the preposition where necessary.

1. What work did you get ... (rightly yesterday)?