

Name: _____ Date: _____

Complete Subjects

A complete subject includes all of the words that tell who or what did something in a sentence.

Example:

The basketball player drank three bottles of water before practice.

Complete subject = The basketball player

Underline the complete subjects in the following sentences.

1. Five furry dogs ran across the field at the park.
2. Angela's mother plays the cello every day at six o'clock.
3. Stephen enjoys playing basketball on the weekends.
4. My family has tickets to see the opera next month.
5. The children enjoy playing handball at recess.
6. Charlie decided to invite his friend Spencer over to play Monopoly.
7. Karen's sister is going to play soccer.
8. The silly clown made a vase of water disappear.
9. The flowers in the front yard bloomed over the weekend.
10. Their aunt is traveling into town this afternoon.
11. The wooden door shut loudly.
12. He never wants to start his homework when he gets home from school.