

How often do your parents visit your brother?	They visit him every month.	How often do you and your sister visit your aunt and uncle?
We visit them every year.	How often does Arsen visit his neighbors?	He visits them every weekend.
How often does Patricia watch television?	She watches it every night.	How often do your children watch "The Lion King"?
They watch it every Sunday.	How often does Alex watch music videos?	He watches them every night.
How often does Purnam wash the windows?	She washes them every month.	How often does Maricela wash her car?
She washes it every week.	How often does Josh wash the dishes?	He washes them every night.

Instructions:

Students read each sentence. They read each sentence aloud and write the correct verb form in the blank space. On page 6, the partners try matching questions and answers. Each student chooses questions to read to their partners (alternating together on another page activity).