

EXAMPLES AND COMPOUND SUBJECT AND PREDICATE.

Circle the letter a, b, c or d if the underlined group of words is a simple subject, simple predicate, compound subject, or compound predicate.

1. John's English course were interesting after.
- a. simple subject    b. compound subject    c. simple predicate    d. compound predicate
2. Two countries in central Texas were hit by a harmful pest yesterday.
- a. simple subject    b. compound subject    c. simple predicate    d. compound predicate
3. Everyone needs some of this, or life becomes hard.
- a. simple subject    b. compound subject    c. simple predicate    d. compound predicate
4. Spiders probed and slay insects, away from the red insects.
- a. simple subject    b. compound subject    c. simple predicate    d. compound predicate
5. Mike ran and jumped to his house.
- a. simple subject    b. compound subject    c. simple predicate    d. compound predicate
6. Steve cut out a hole in the log to climb in.
- a. simple subject    b. compound subject    c. simple predicate    d. compound predicate
7. John is fixing the decorations inside the ship right now.
- a. simple subject    b. compound subject    c. simple predicate    d. compound predicate