

-ed & -ing adjectives worksheet

-ing adjectives are used to describe things: 'The movie was boring.'
-ed adjectives are used to describe our feelings: 'I felt very bored.'

1. Underline the correct adjective in the following opinions.

- a) The food was disgusted / disgusting!
- b) I love being frightened/ frightening by a good horror film.
- c) The stadium was crowded / crowding with fans of United.
- d) I was surprised / surprising by the score at the end.
- e) The special effects were amazed / amazing.
- f) The last chapter is very excited / exciting.
- g) I am very interested / interesting in Ancient Egypt.
- h) The menu was disappointed / disappointing.
- i) I was bored / boring with the first chapter.
- j) I was very tired / tiring and I wanted a nice comfortable bed.
- k) I had a relaxed / relaxing Jacuzzi before I went to bed.

2. Answer the following questions using the correct adjectives.

- a) What was the most disgusting food you have eaten?
- b) Have you ever been frightened by something?
- c) What things are you interested in?
- d) Do you think it is important to feel relaxed when you are in a meeting? Why / why not?
- e) Tell your partner about an amazing experience you have had.