

Directions

1. Save this template to your own computer in a location that makes it easy first time, save the file with a new name so that you don't replace the blank t use the renamed file. The template consists of a sheet for each month's we: month so you can see what the data and graph look like, an extra month, ar the bottom of this screen to access a different sheet.

2. Type the date information into the column labeled "Date". You can use c information you want (Excel may format your dates in a way that you don't w select the formatting that you want Excel to use) . You can also change the if you choose.

3. Each day record the "Conditions". You can only select one of the followi day:

Sunny
Cloudy
Rainy
Snowy
Foggy
Windy

4. Each day record the "Temperature". You can only select one of the follo each day.

Cold
Cool
Warm
Hot

5. The "Conditions" and the "Temperature" should automatically graph a ba