

Directions: Complete and compare the character sketches that the beginning of a story is like and that a story is like the different stories which (beginning of) through every day make change over the course of the story. Then, discuss the character sketches and how they are affected at the end.

Story Title: _____

Character: _____

Describe the character at beginning of story.

Describe an event that caused change.

Describe the character at the end of the story.

