

Attention: Scholars, Activists, Students and Community Members

Call for Submissions:

Green Criminology and Security Studies Journal

a Project of the Center for Green Criminology and Security Studies

The goal of this online, free, peer-reviewed Journal, is to promote critical scholarly work on the areas of education, social movements, conflict, crisis, ethnicity, culture, education, tactics, strategies, domination, rights, ethics, sustainability, control, identity, experimentation, agriculture, inclusion, repression, globalization, economics, security, activism, and social justice in relation to nonhuman animal and ecological protection and environmental justice.

We are seeking research articles and essays and/or student final papers, including:

| course/class summaries | research notes | commentary | tactic and strategy analysis |
| academic development | lecture summaries | conference summaries |
| protest summaries | action alert summaries
| film, book, art, and media reviews | | interviews and dialogues |
| poems and other forms of expression including MP3s and youtube videos |

Review Process

Upon acceptance for review, the Green Criminology and Security Studies Journal editors will send manuscripts under a peer reviewed process, (to no less than two, and generally three reviewers). Reviewers provide their recommendations to the editor, who makes the final decision to accept the manuscript.

For style guidelines, visit the website:

<http://greencriminologyandsecurity.wordpress.com/journal/>

Submissions will be assigned to one of the four following categories:

accept without revisions | accept with editorial revisions | revise and resubmit for peer review | reject

Every effort will be made to inform authors of the editor's decision within 100 days of receipt of a manuscript. The Green Criminology and Security Studies Journal only publishes original materials. Please do not submit manuscripts that are under review or previously published elsewhere.

Send Submissions to: Dr. Rob White, Editor
soso44@bangor.ac.uk