

The Lost and Found

Wendell and Floyd were in trouble. That morning a giant squid had trapped them in the boys' restroom for almost an hour, causing them to miss a math test. Their teacher, Mr. Cornblatt, had been furious.

"We have no luck," said Floyd.

Just then, Miss Tachburn entered the office. Miss was the new girl in their class.

"I'm trying to find the Lost and Found," she said. "I lost my lucky hat."

Wendell and Floyd glanced at each other. "That's strange," said Wendell. "We were just talking about luck."

"We don't have any," Floyd said.

"Neither do I," said Miss. "At least not without my hat."

Wendell pointed to a bin marked LOST AND FOUND. "I wish I had a lucky hat."

"So do I," Floyd agreed. "Then maybe we wouldn't get into these crazy situations."

Miss leaned farther and farther into the bin. Soon only her feet were visible. A moment later she was gone.

The boys walked over to have a closer look.

"Where did she go?" asked Wendell.
