

Week 1

English 10

The Color of Innocence

Study Guide

1. Why is the concept of being "white" or "innocent"?
2. What does Robinson have a "relationship" of?
3. How does Robinson use the "white" concept following her trial for being "innocent" (white)? What does this relationship represent for her?
4. How does Robinson use "white" to describe her?
5. What is the "white" concept being used for? How are these people?
6. What does Robinson mean by "white" or "innocent"?
7. How many years has it been since Robinson was "innocent"?
8. What is the "white" concept being used for? How are these people?