

Using Context Clues

Directions: For each item, circle the letter of the sentence with correctly used context. If the sentence is correct as is, circle correct.

1. Will you get through the passage or shall we take a short?
A. Will you get through the passage or shall we take a short?
B. Will you get, or we take the passage, or shall we take a short?
C. Will you get through the passage or, shall we take a short?
D. Correct
2. After the first question of my class I was advised
E. After the first question of my class, I was advised.
F. After I had completed the, all my class, I was advised.
G. After I had completed the of my class, I was advised.
H. Correct
3. The principal instructed the students, and the students to assemble.
A. The principal instructed the students, and the students to assemble.
B. The principal, instructed the students and the students to assemble.
C. The principal, instructed the students and the students to assemble.
D. Correct
4. Several children who will be asked soon is waiting in line.
E. Several children, who will be asked soon, waiting in line.
F. Several children, who will be asked soon, is waiting in line.
G. Several children who will be asked soon, is waiting in line.
H. Correct
5. I have already read the book and you should, for your report.
A. I have already read the book and you should, for your report.
B. I have already read the book and you should, for your report.
C. I have already read the book and you should, for your report.
D. Correct
6. Please don't leave until tomorrow.
E. Please don't leave until tomorrow.
F. Please don't leave, until tomorrow.
G. Please, don't leave until tomorrow.
H. Correct