This diagram is called a Frames-and-Arrows diagram.
It consists of frames, or shapes, connected by arrows that show a path from one frame to the next.

Each arrow represents a rule. The arrow rule determines which number goes in the next frame.