- · A linking verb does not show action. It connects the subject to the rest of the sentence.
- The word be is a common linking verb. Be has special forms in the present tense. A linking verb must agree with its subject. I am part of a big family.

The house is big and roomy.

All my brothers are here.

1.	I	on	vacation	with	mv	family.
			a concentration in		,	· con · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · · ·

2. We _____ at a park with lots of rides.

3. The rides __ _____ fast and scary.

4. But now we _____ in trouble.

5. Sam and I _____ happy to stay in the water park.

6. Chris _____ ready to try the roller-coaster.

7. George _____ ready for lunch.

8. Fortunately, Mom and Dad ___

9. I _____ happy to listen to their ideas.

10. We _____ eager for a good solution!

11. Mom and Dad ______ glad to be at the park.

at the ice cream stand. 12. Sam and Chris ____

13. I _____ hungry.

14. George _____ on the steps to the ticket booth.

15. We _____ next to the miniature golf course.