

Patterns in poems

Read the following two poems aloud, then answer the questions.

(poem 1)

Who has seen the wind?
Neither I nor you;
But when the leaves hang trembling,
The wind is passing through.

Who has seen the wind?
Neither you nor I;
But when the trees bow down their heads,
The wind is passing by.

Christina Rossetti

(poem 2)

I can get through a doorway without any key,
And strip the leaves from the great oak tree.
I can drive storm-clouds and shake tall towers,
Or steal through a garden and not wake the flowers.
Soar I can move and ships I can sink,
I can carry a house-top or the scent of a pink.
When I am angry I can rave and roar,
And when I am spent, I lie quiet as a snore.

James Keble
