Unit: Act 4, Scene 1

Read the following text. Then, answer the questions below.

What I have done

Edmund's mother was a witch. She had a grudge against her father, and she wanted her son to do something against her.

One afternoon, Edmund's mother was busy writing, and Edmund went to his room to do his homework.

Edmund was very unhappy when he found out that Edmund had betrayed his father's secret to her. He looked into his mother's office. She was sitting at the computer screen. There he found a page.

The page had some words that were very mysterious. She was just before Edmund when he started to do his homework.

As he looked at the words, he was so afraid that he was afraid to go back to his mother. He was looking at the words, Edmund looked at the words, and then he was afraid to go back.

Later, Edmund's mother came to his office. "What have you been doing?" she asked.

Edmund said, "I've been looking at the words."

Read the text. Then, answer the following questions.

1. What was Edmund afraid of looking at the words?
