Reading Activity 1

Unit: Act 4, Scene 1

Read the following text. Then, answer the questions below.

What I have done

Edmund's mother was a witch. She had a grudge against her father, and she wanted her son to do whatever she said.

One afternoon, Edmund's mother was busy writing, and Edmund went to his room to do his homework.

Edmund was very unhappy when he found out that Edmund had betrayed his father to the king. He looked into his mother's office. He was angry at the thought of her. He had to go.

The queen had a grudge against her father. She was a witch. She was a witch. She was a witch. She was a witch.

As he talked with himself, he was so angry with his own mother as a result of the accident. He had been looking for her. Edmund looked at with his sword, and then it was all over.

Later, Edmund's mother came to his office. "What have you been doing?" she asked.

Edmund said, "I've been looking for her."
