

Name: _____

Date: _____

Teacher: _____

Reading Activity 1

Unit: Act 4, Scene 1

Read the following text. Then, answer the questions below.

What I have done

Edmund's mother was a witch. She had a grudge against her father, and she wanted her son to do something against her.

One afternoon, Edmund's mother was busy writing, and Edmund went to his room to do his homework.

Edmund was very unhappy when he found out that Edmund had betrayed his father to the king. He looked into his mother's office. He was angry at the thought of her. He had to go.

The queen had a grudge against her father. She was a witch. She was a witch. Edmund was the witch's son.

As he looked back on his life, he was a grudge against his father. He was a grudge against his father. He was a grudge against his father. He was a grudge against his father.

Later, Edmund's mother came to his office. "What have you done?" she asked.

Edmund said, "I have done nothing."

Read the text. Then, answer the following questions.

1. What was Edmund's grudge against his father?
2. How did Edmund's mother feel about his grudge?

1. Edmund's Grudge
What	How	When	Where

3. Complete the diagram by filling in the blanks of the story.

4. What was Edmund's grudge against his father's wife?
5. What was the father's grudge against his wife?
6. How did Edmund's mother feel about his grudge?