

Name: _____

Subjects of the Sentence

Directions: The subject of the sentence tells who or what the sentence is about. Sometimes the subject contains more than one person or thing. Read the sentences below. Underline the subject of each sentence. Circle if the subject tells about a WHO or a WHAT.

EX: Casey and Lauren were waiting for us. WHO WHAT

- | | | |
|--|-----|------|
| 1. Paul and Steve played basketball all night. | WHO | WHAT |
| 2. Rabbits, mice, and gerbils are sold at the pet store. | WHO | WHAT |
| 3. The radio and the TV were left on while we were out. | WHO | WHAT |
| 4. Mom and dad brought us to the circus last weekend. | WHO | WHAT |
| 5. Fireworks and a parade will be planned for the 4th. | WHO | WHAT |

Directions: Write 2 sentences and underline the subject of each. Be sure the subject contains more than one person or thing. Write one subject to tell WHAT the sentence is about. Write the other to tell WHO the sentence is about.
