

"Frog and Toad are Friends" by Arnold Lobel
Story: "Spring"

Please read the instructions carefully. These are study activities for you to do before you read the story. You must turn in this booklet on June 28th.

Pre-reading Activities: (before you read the story)

- Think about the the "Spring". List about the things that you like to do in Spring.

I like to...

- Frog and Toad are good friends. Fill in these sentences to tell how you feel about friendship.

- It is important to have a friend because

- One way to make friends is to

- Another to be a good friend I need to

- I want my friends to
