

Subjects in Unusual Places Worksheet

Directions: Underline simple subjects once and simple predicates (verbs) twice. (Be sure to include helping verbs.) For a question, write out the statement form to the right. Cross out each prep phrase and initial "there" to help eliminate options.

1. When did she go home? Statement:
2. There are butterflies in the air.
3. Shannon, do the dishes.
4. Chip and Dale went to Disneyland.
5. What is her name? Statement:
6. There is an ape in the banana car.
7. Clean your room, please.
8. Shannon, Cassidy, and Lily walked on water.
9. Are you done with the computer? Statement:
10. There are many shirts in my closet.
11. Don't shut the door like that!
12. Bob and Sue drove to school
13. Do you have a dog? Statement: