Story Plot Graph

Directions: List the events of the story in the correct boxes.

The diagram is a story plot graph. It features a large, upward-curving line that starts at the bottom left, rises to a peak, and then falls back down to the bottom right. The graph is divided into five rectangular boxes, each labeled with a story element:

- Introduction: A box at the bottom left, where the line begins its ascent.
- Rising Action: A box on the left side, where the line rises steeply.
- Climax: A box at the top left, where the line reaches its highest point.
- Falling Action: A box on the right side, where the line descends.
- Denouement: A box at the bottom right, where the line ends.
