Story Plot Graph

Directions: List the events of the story in the correct boxes.

The diagram is a story plot graph. It features a large, upward-curving line that starts at the bottom left, rises to a peak, and then falls back down to the bottom right. This line is divided into five sections by vertical lines. Each section is enclosed in a rectangular box. The boxes are labeled as follows:

- Introduction: The bottom-left box, where the line starts at its lowest point.
- Rising Action: The box on the left side, where the line rises steeply.
- Climax: The top-most box, where the line reaches its highest point.
- Falling Action: The box on the right side, where the line falls steeply.
- Denouement: The bottom-right box, where the line ends at its lowest point.
