

Name _____ Date _____

In the following sentences, the underlined words are subjects and the italicized words are objects. Replace the subjects with subject pronouns and the objects with object pronouns.

Ex. Mateo ate pancakes.
He ate them.

1. Mr. Hanson sells houses. _____ sells _____.
2. Has Sam seen Maria yet? Has _____ seen _____ yet?
3. Paul went on a walk with his father. _____ went on a walk with _____.
4. On my desk are two books about Queen Victoria. On _____ are two books about _____.
5. The books belong to Frank. _____ belong to _____.
6. Mrs. Ortiz brought the books from California. _____ brought _____ from California.
7. Helen will read the paper during breakfast. _____ will read _____ during breakfast.
8. Jack and Jill met Steve and Stephanie for lunch. _____ met _____ for lunch.
9. Please put the milk in the refrigerator. Please put _____ in the refrigerator.
10. Helen, wait for John and me at the door. Helen, wait for _____ at the door.