

Month	Displays the current month. User may select another month.
Year	Displays the current year. User may select another year.
View By Drug	Displays a drug view for the schedule. Shows a table view with the listing of days and medications.
View By Period	Displays a schedule by period view which is the default view with the calendar.
Calendar	Displays a calendar for the current month. User is able to select a link for a certain day. The large calendar will reflect the user's choice. User is able to select different months and days. The large calendar shows scheduling for a week. User double clicks in a pink section of the large calendar. A small popup window appears with three links: Add a pill, Subtract a pill, Cancel.
View Patient Notes	User enters notes. Shows a listing of created notes. Notes show: created date, created by, and note.
Slang Name	User enters the slang name of the medication. For example, Blood thinner, Pain medication.
SIG	Displays the SIG entered. User is able to select a different SIG from the dropdown box.
RX Number	User can enter a prescription number for the medication.
Start Date	Displays the start date of the medication. Not editable field.