

REVIEW: Count and Non-Count Nouns - Part 1

Countable Nouns

- Are things that you can count
- Answer the question, "How many?"
- Includes the following ...

1. Homes - rooms, refrigerators, cars
2. Cars - radios, tires, doors, windows
3. Families - sisters, brothers, parents
4. Feelings
5. Schools - colleges - classes - desks
6. Doctors - prescriptions, patients
7. Cups of, Bottles of, Cars of, Packs of
8. Cartons of, Boxes of
9. Dollars
10. Buildings - banks, schools, libraries

Non-Countable Nouns

- Are things that you cannot count or touch
- Answer the question, "How much?"
- Includes the following ...

1. Electricity, love, gas
2. Energy, traffic, light
3. Love
4. Hatred, Sacrifice, Hunger, Thirst
5. Education, Knowledge; Chemistry, Math
6. Medicine, Patience, Sickness
7. Coffee, Water, Juice, Soda, Gum
8. Milk, Ice Cream, Cereal
9. Money
10. Architecture, Finances, Reading

Directions: Identify each word as 'C' (countable) or 'NC' (non-countable).

- | | | |
|----------------|-----------------|-------------|
| 1. sugar | 6. monitors | 11. watches |
| 2. milk | 7. religions | 12. health |
| 3. typewriters | 8. Christianity | 13. cd's |
| 4. music | 9. Judaism | 14. pens |
| 5. songs | 10. Islam | |

REVIEW: Count and Non-Count Nouns - Part 2

Countable Nouns

- Are things that you can count
- Includes the following ...

few ☹, a few ☹ fewer than many more - a lot of

Non-Countable Nouns

- Are things that you cannot count or touch
- Includes the following ...

little ☹, a little ☹ less than much more - a lot of

Directions: Create sentences for each word in the above box.