

present perfect

Verb: already and yet

1 I have already visited this city. I have already visited it yet.

2 I haven't yet finished my homework.

3 I have known her since I was a child.

4 I haven't seen her for ages.

5 I have lived in London for 10 years.

6 I haven't heard from her since she moved.

7 I have been to Paris three times.

8 I haven't found a job yet.

9 I have known her since we were young.

10 I haven't seen her for ages.

11 I have been to the beach many times.

12 I haven't heard from her since she moved.

13 I have known her since we were young.

14 I haven't seen her for ages.

15 I have lived in London for 10 years.

16 I haven't heard from her since she moved.

17 I have been to Paris three times.

18 I have known her since we were young.

19 I haven't seen her for ages.

20 I have lived in London for 10 years.

21 I haven't heard from her since she moved.

22 I have been to Paris three times.

23 I haven't seen her for ages.

24 I have known her since we were young.

25 I haven't heard from her since she moved.

26 I have been to Paris three times.

27 I haven't seen her for ages.

28 I have known her since we were young.

29 I haven't heard from her since she moved.

30 I have been to Paris three times.

31 I haven't seen her for ages.

32 I have known her since we were young.

33 I haven't heard from her since she moved.

34 I have been to Paris three times.