

Outline

Thesis statement: The British tourism industry can only get healthy and sustainable development by a clear realization of negative impact of tourism industry on British culture and society.

Topic: The negative impact of tourism industry on British culture and society.

1. Introduction: British tourism has developed quite well, yet, many negative effects can not be ignored

2. Main Body: negative effects on society and culture

- (1) negative impact on economy
 - A. brings about the travel balance in deficit
 - B. increase the costs of economic development
- (2) the damage to the environment
 - A. the destruction of natural environment
 - B. the problems of manmade environment
- (3) the damage to culture
 - A. trivialization of special local culture
 - B. commercialization of the culture

3. Conclusion

Negative effects of tourism on British culture and society deserve serious attention. Measures shall be taken in order to get further and healthier development of British tourism industry.