

Roman Republic Diagrams

The Task: Create a poster sized diagram to show the different branches of the Roman Republic and the distribution of power.

Key vocabulary Senate, patrician, consul, plebeian, censor, Tribune, Assembly of Tribunes, power of veto, checks and balances, SPQR,
--

Grade Scale	Content	Concepts	Style and Organization
9/10	Diagram shows all branches of the Roman Republic and how they connected to each other in an original way. Key vocabulary is used.	Diagram clearly shows how each branch of the Republic is connected to each other. The diagram's shape is appropriate to show how power was distributed in the Republic.	Diagram is clear, colorful, original, not a picture, correct information.
7/8	Diagram shows all branches of the Roman Republic and how they connected to each other. Key vocabulary is used.	Diagram shows responsibilities of each section of the Republic and how they connected to each other.	Diagram is clear, colorful – not a picture.
5/6	Diagram shows most of the branches of the Republic. Some key vocabulary is used.	Diagram tries to show responsibilities of each section of the Republic and how they connected to each other.	Diagram is clear and functional
3/4	Some errors in information	Some errors in showing how each section of the republic connects to each other.	Diagram is not yet clear and functional.
2/3	Many errors in information or missing parts. Diagram is unclear and does not show how each of the different branches connected to each other.	Some concepts understood but not a clear idea of how the Republic worked.	Diagram is unclear or it is more a picture.