

Animals

What you need to know (Lo que necesitas saber)

Living things can move, eat and have babies.
Animals can walk with their feet, fly with their wings or swim with their fins.

Carnivores are animals that only eat animals (meat).
Herbivores are animals that only eat plants.

Viviparous animals are born from their mother's body.
Oviparous animals are born from eggs.

Domestic animals live with people.
Pets live with people in their houses. Farm animals live with people on a farm.

Wild animals don't live with people.

Practise:
Trace and read the sentence.

Animals walk with their feet, fly with their wings and swim with their fins.