The Bullying Questionnaire

Question #1

Step 9B

Read the paragraph together with your partner. Discuss the person that will be reading the text.

Reading

Bullying is what someone keeps doing or saying to you, or someone else, over and over again. It is not just one-time things. Other people who are talking, threatening, hitting or embarrassing things about them, making them feel bad or different, or talking to them, threatening them, making them feel bad or different, or making them do things they don't want to do.

There are lots of reasons why someone bullies. They may see it as easy or fun, or they may be trying to get someone else to do something they don't want to do.

Some people don't want attention or things or to make other people feel bad. Others just do it because they know they can. They may be trying to get someone else to do something they don't want to do, or they may be trying to get someone else to do something they don't want to do.

Step 9C

Consider the scenario below and understanding and prevention.

Write your partner with the best solution to the problem of the situation.
