

Name _____

Date _____

Block _____

Predicting Products of Chemical reactions

Directions: First, determine the type of reaction (single replacement, double replacement, synthesis, decomposition, and combustion). Secondly, predict the products for the reaction and write the correct chemical formula for each product. Finally, balance each reaction using the correct coefficients.

