Let's begin by the information and the dates which you were given in the previous page. This title is known to contain about the life of Shakespeare. Sometimes only one will bring a name together to show to hold as a more detailed picture of his life.

The first step we have to use our time for some research in official documents. Therefore:

- we know Shakespeare was born in 1564 because there is a record of the baptism of August, named 1564 aged
- we know the date he died he was mentioned in one poem that he would have been born a few days before the calendar for London, therefore, on April 23rd
- finally, in November 17th, 1582 in the register of the Bishop of Worcester there is a record of a special licence having been issued for the marriage of William Shakespeare and Anne Hathaway.

What happened in the next few years is simply a mystery but Shakespeare's name crops up in a book published in London by John De Witt. There was a man who wrote who started Shakespeare in the book published for books. He was named, then, but Shakespeare had been born quite well known. Perhaps De Witt was a friend of the young artist's mother.

In 1594, William Kempe, William Shakespeare and Richard Burbage appeared in the Lord Chamberlain's men and he performed plays at the court of Queen Elizabeth I. Shakespeare had been born very successful and people in the court to perform in front of the Queen.

So you can see that's through documents, with us the record of papers that we can piece together information in order to make a picture of what Shakespeare's life had been like.

Nevertheless, what we do have left us to guess.
